In 1983, when the Library flapped open its door to users, it was a modest floor area with a very small seating capacity. Thriving on simplicity, the working area for the few staff was located in the basement level of the three level mini library.

In 1986, it moved to its own four (4) storey building where it began to steadily develop its collection and expand its services and facilities. February 1997 witnessed the final
