Finding a Case in English Reports
When the Citation is Partially Known

The English Reports consist of law cases dated from 1220 to 1865. To start looking for a specific case, for example, (1832) 4 B & Ad 72, follow these easy steps:

1. Look up in the English Reports’ Wall Chart for the Original Report Title (B & Ad)
2. Identify in Which Volume of English Reports the Original Report is Located
3. Locate the Correct Volume of the English Reports
4. Flip through the Volume and Locate the Case According to the Citation Given at the Top Right Hand Corner of the Page